

Mexico Pacific Limited LLC Appoints Josh Loftus as President

Mexico Pacific Limited, LLC (the “Company”, or “MPL”), the owner and developer of a liquefied natural gas (LNG) project on the Gulf of California in Mexico, announced today that its Board of Directors has appointed Josh Loftus as President of MPL.

HOUSTON (PRWEB) May 10, 2018 -- Mr. Loftus joins MPL from Ernst & Young where he was a business development leader in the energy sector in Houston. During the prior eleven years, Mr. Loftus held several senior roles with the General Electric Company, including as Global Sales Leader for GE Oil & Gas where he focused on LNG, CNG and Gas Processing solutions. Mr. Loftus received a B.A. in economics and business administration from the University of Missouri and an M.B.A. from the University of Notre Dame.

MPL Chairman Robert Kelly said, “As we continue to ramp up our activity to commercialize phase 1 of the MPL LNG project, I am excited to bring an executive of Josh’s caliber and experience to join the leadership team of MPL. Josh’s diverse skill set and breadth of knowledge in the LNG sector, particularly his expertise with the commercialization of modular LNG technology, will significantly bolster MPL’s capabilities as we continue to advance the project.”

About Mexico Pacific Limited LLC

MPL is a Pacific Coast North American liquefaction facility that has substantial cost and logistical advantages versus other US facilities serving the Pacific Basin. Based at Puerto Libertad in the state of Sonora, Mexico, MPL has a deep-water port and is interconnected with the US shale gas grid by multiple natural gas pipelines, which are already in service, to bring natural gas to the site. The Company is permitted for up to 12 MTPA of LNG and targets the initial construction of 2 to 4 MTPA using modular LNG technology. MPL is a joint venture of DKRW Energy Sonora Holdings, LLC and AECOM Capital Private Infrastructure.
